

A LITTLE ABOUT US...

In the early 1960's, Joe Ruben opened up the Good Luck Tavern on downtown El Paso Street. A couple of years later, the tavern was relocated to 3828 Alameda Ave. In 1968, Mr. Puentes opened the original Good Luck Café in a renovated filling station, across the street from the tavern. In 1972, Joe's wife Elvira quit her day job at Newberry's to join her husband in the daily operations of the family business. In 1988, the Good Luck relocated down the block to its current location. Since then, we have been serving up some of El Paso's favorite Mexican and American dishes!
